

A Midsummer Daydream

Relishing the languorous late-summer heat, it seems this season is made for dreaming. Visions of laying lazily in breezy linen and one-of-a-kind vintage layers softened by the hands of time float about. As early light shines through half-covered windows, an effervescent glow illuminates our sun-drenched Earth as we enter midsummer.

Playing on classic coastal finishes, found objects with no shortage of character and charm mingle with unusual suspects. Burnt orange and blush meld for a space that feels bright, boasting a familiar ease that welcomes late mornings and afternoon naps.
